Attended the following program - Keynote - A Conversation with Henry Louis Gates, Jr. about Education in America

Join Emmy Award-winning filmmaker, literary scholar, journalist, cultural critic, and institution builder, Henry Louis Gates, Jr. as he discusses a teaching career that has taken him from Yale to Cornell to Duke to Harvard. The Harvard scholar Dr. Gates says improving schools is the way to open the middle class up to more black and white Americans. Dr. Gates will discuss his assertion that, "We have to have a massive revolution in public education in the United States." This presentation delves into how we move from the failed policies of equality to the undeniably necessity of equity in public education.
